

TRANSMISSION

PICKS OF THE WEEK

Read of the Week

In "*The Devil All the Time*," author Donald Ray Pollock strikes with a terrifying cast of rural characters: the haunted WWII veteran, the husband and wife serial killers who target young men along the Interstate, the predatory revival preacher and his wheelchair-bound guitar-playing cousin, all tied together with violence, sin, and gorgeous prose into a mesmerizing slice of Americana.

Movie of the Week

In *Wrath of The Titans*, Perseus (Sam Worthington) braves the treacherous underworld to rescue his father, Zeus, captured by his son, Ares, and brother Hades who unleash the ancient Titans upon the world.

Album of the Week

Koloss, the seventh, most recent studio album by Swedish metal band, Meshuggah, has received widespread critical acclaim, even said, already, to be counted among Meshuggah's very best material.

Website of the Week

A nationwide American youth organization, Camp Fire USA's programs, including camping and environmental education, child care and service learning, build confidence in younger children and provide hands-on, youth driven leadership experiences for older youth.
